Concordian

A black and white photograph of a young woman with dark, wavy hair, wearing a patterned blouse and a dark vest, sitting on a globe. She is holding an open book and looking down at it. The globe shows a detailed aerial view of a town with various buildings, streets, and trees. The woman's legs are crossed at the ankles, and she is wearing dark shoes with white socks.

Concord is our world--a high school which is the symbol of America education. Here the student learns to work and play with zest and to find joy in work well done. He senses a feeling of pride in belonging when he walks through the halls and campus.

Concord during the year 1958-1959 means many things to many people, and this Concordian is published as a constant reminder of those happy days spent intellectually and socially at Concord High School.

BOYD J. STUMP

To run our school district and oversee our educational program are only two of the duties of a good superintendent. He must also be able to guide and inspire the students, giving them trust and confidence so that they will seek deeper understanding and higher standards. He must be able to earn the respect of the student body, the faculty, and the community by complete understanding and shrewd insight into their problems.

To you, Mr. Stump, a superintendent with these sterling qualities of leadership, we dedicate this 1959 edition of the Concordian.

As we look out the press room window, through the wires, we can view our rapidly growing campus. In 1926 the Concord Metropolitan School District consisted of only two grade school buildings.

At present our campus includes three buildings with 37 classrooms, a gym, and an auditorium. The enrollment 1,795 is the school's largest. A new tennis court was constructed this fall with facilities for ice skating. Also a new grade school is being built which will be ready for use next fall. This site was formerly an athletic field. Two other grade schools, East Side and West Side, are a part of Concord. The complete service staff now includes 63 faculty, 4 secretaries, 7 janitors, 15 bus drivers, and 10 cooks.

The Year '58-'59

The year '58-'59 has been a very successful and eventful year. The breathtaking basketball games, the crowning of the homecoming queen, the well-attended dances, the state and local contests in which the speech, band and choir departments took part -- all these events are highlighted in the following pages.

Bill Toney and Joyce Welgamood

Our World At Concord Begins

Impatient because they would rather be talking to their friends about all the exciting things that happened during the summer, these students wait in line to purchase books and materials which are a necessity to begin the year.

At 8:10 Daily From Sept. To May

C. H. S. students arrive bright and early each morning and depart each afternoon regardless of difficulties. No matter the make of transportation they faithfully make their way to school.

Regardless of weather conditions, Larry Ernest pedals to school, because of his obligations to the Elkhart Truth and to his customers.

Charles Wilcox and Gordon Stevens use the most popular and reliable method of getting to school, the bus.

It is difficult to find a parking space as more and more students find excuses to drive to school.

Our Summer Season Ends

On the first day of school there is pandemonium in the office as students clamor for attention. Changing schedules and finding classrooms all add to the hysteria.

It seems as though Don Graber cannot keep his mind on school work as the year begins. With warm weather prevailing, he is probably thinking of a dip in the lake.

As School Offers Various Activities

Beryl Boon holds the mirror while Dan Kirts admires his beard which he grew for the Elkhart Centennial.

Between patch and eye tests Mrs. Davis finds time to check students for minor illnesses such as tonsilitis and colds.

Don Priest and Sandra Tutorow are interested in "Chanel", Jo Ellen Yoder's pet skunk, which visited the biology lab.

Color Days Add Zest And Spirit

It's hands up for "Painter" Van Sickle when "Top Gun" Mr. Stump points a playful finger. Faculty, as well as students, enjoy the fun of color days.

Color Days at Concord express our spirit on the days of our home games or of special games during the county or sectional tournaments.

Every teen-ager as he tries to keep his mind on class discussions envies Pamela Murray for she spends color days -- afternoons that is -- taking a nap as every four-year-old should.

Assembly Programs, Holidays And

Everyone enjoyed the entertainment given by genial Don Lonnie, when we were privileged to have him lecture on "How to be Popular." He was introduced by Jerry Woodhouse, Director of Youth For Christ Club.

Kathy Kauffman, Judy McCormick, Trudy Wilcox, Verna Vargo and Marla Lovejoy are getting in the Christmas spirit as they help decorate the Christmas tree in the hall of the new building.

When the snow forced the closing of school unexpectedly, most people weren't trying as hard as Mr. Fullhart to get back to school. He even tried to plow his way in with his jeep. After arriving, to Mr. Fullhart's surprise, he was the only one attending.

Unusual Honors Add Variety

It is easily seen why Connie Anglemyer and Phil Swihart were elected best actor and actress. Long hours of coaching and memorizing lines all helped to lead them to the honor.

Last year, Shaw Jewelers donated a trophy to the Speech Department for the purpose of awarding it to the outstanding actor and actress of each play. The first recipients of this honor were Connie Anglemyer and Tom Sweazy for their performances in "The Robe." This year, Nancy McKibbin and Phil Swihart were elected for their display of talent in "Cheaper By The Dozen."

Homecoming Queen, And Good

Donna Smetzer, a popular and attractive senior, was chosen this year's Homecoming Queen by the senior class. Donna was crowned at the game between Concord and Bristol. She also reigned at the Homecoming dance after the game. Her attendants consisted of Carol Lechlitner, Delores Smetzer, and Karen Weeber. This event is sponsored each year by the junior class.

Freshman attendant, Karen Weeber, is escorted by Loy McKibbin as she precedes the Queen.

Citizens Are Elected Annually

Joyce Wolgamood and Bob Holdeman received this year's citizenship award. Mr. Gwaltney (right) congratulates them, after their election by popular vote was approved by the faculty.

This annual award is made to the top citizens of the senior class who are chosen on the following basis: loyalty to school, class, and fellow students; a co-operative attitude; courtesy; courageousness; popularity; fairness; a variety of interests and intelligence.

Tourneys Are Terrific For Teams,

South Bend Tribune

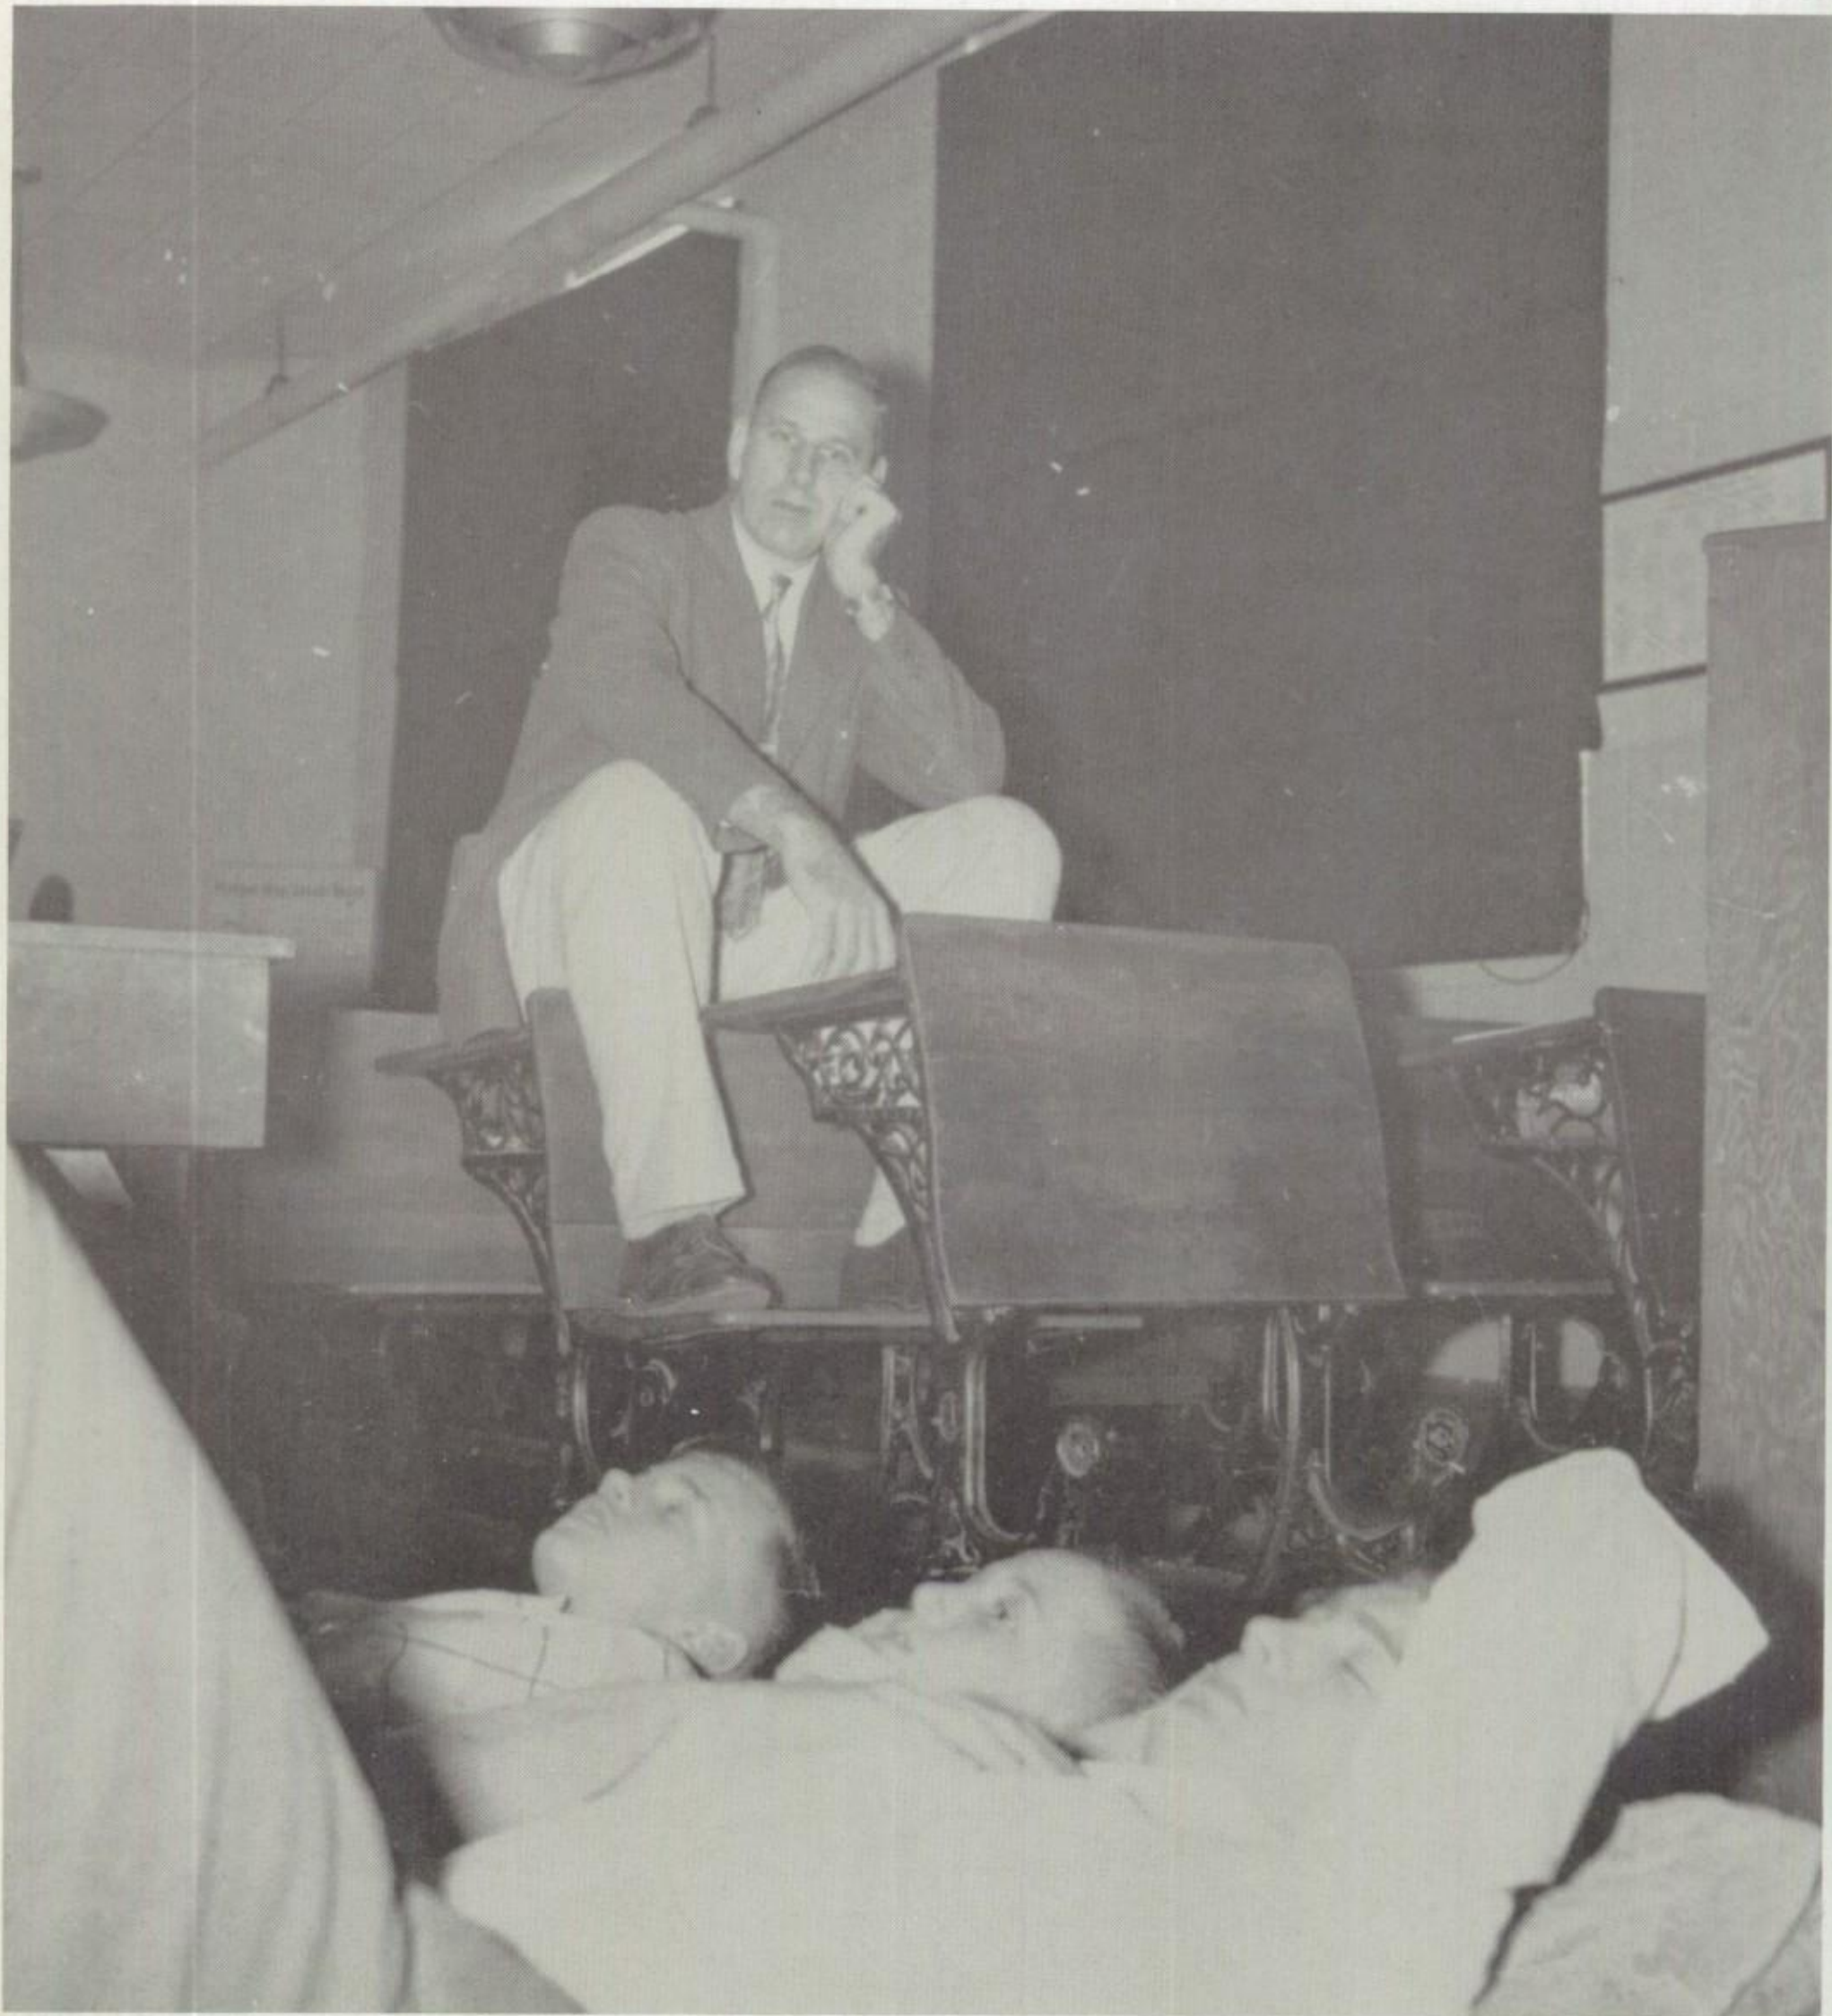

Rita Rheinheimer, who has climbed to the top of the ladder, reminds each one of the value of good sportsmanship - win or lose.

Concord Teams Sweep

The deep expression captured during an unguarded moment clearly indicates the dreams of victory in Mr. Hoogenboom's head as he watches over Rodney Stauffer, Dennis Sharkey, and Dick Kennedy. The boys are resting preparatory to defeating Wakarusa for the county "B" team championship.

County Championships

Mr. Murray cuts the last piece of net in celebration of our victories.

Leon Linn, one of the two seniors on the team, is presented the trophy of the County Tournament by Clyde Sutton.

Dances And Proms . . An Important

Some victories are celebrated twice—once at the game and once at the post-game dance.

Jerry Wiener, Gayle Overholser and Carol Warfel think that half the fun of the dances is the decorating.

The Homecoming Dance is the most popular of all.

These post-game dances are enjoyed by our principal as well as by the students.

Phase Of Our Social World

Mr. and Mrs. Gwaltney.

The prom is an event of the year that every junior and senior looks forward to. These tired students take time out to relax and enjoy a cup of punch.

Dave Vollmar and Carolyn Stutsman.

The prom affords an opportunity for the boys to don their dinner jackets and the girls to show off their new formals. The dance would not be complete however, without these chaperones, who are also the sponsors of the class of '59.

Classes

Concord has an A rating in scholastic standing. Its students are required to take courses in science, mathematics, history, home economics, physical education, and English. Besides the required subjects there are electives such as art, music, journalism, mechanics, and business. With this wide scope of courses offered the student may prepare for a rewarding and successful future.

Carolyn Stutsman and Virginia Bell

English, Latin, Journalism,

Carol Lechlitner concentrates on putting emphasis and life into her speech.

Knowing the fundamental ways of speaking and writing are valuable in everyone's daily life. Here at Concord there are twenty English classes for students from grades seven through twelve; two speech classes for juniors and seniors; four Latin classes for freshmen, sophomores, and juniors; and two journalism classes for seniors. A special pre-college English class is also given for seniors planning to continue their education.

Speech students are trained to speak clearly and fluently. They are also trained in radio work, acting, and writing speeches.

By taking English, which is required, the students learn to construct a good sentence, to punctuate correctly, and to organize their thoughts for themes and term papers.

Fundamentals of journalism are stressed through publishing a weekly mimeographed paper and the yearbook. Students also have an opportunity to learn photography by using the three cameras offered in this department.

Latin is more popular this year than ever with seventy-three students enrolled in the first year class and seventeen students enrolled in the advanced class.

And Speech Are Emphasized

Virginia Bell and Carolyn Stutsman find the journalism room a good source for new ideas which help in planning the '59 annual, while Fred Ward gathers information for his senior English theme.

Carol Warfel and Gwen Price make up Marchen Roe, who portrays the bride in the skit "The Day of the Roman Wedding," which was presented as a project by the first year Latin class last spring.

We Learn Of The New Worlds

Ann Hess and Beverly Wynn stand unnoticed by Gordy Stevens, who is absorbed in his latest experiment.

Students at Concord realize that in this ever-changing world, progress is attained through scientific knowledge. Careful experiments and constant observation result in numerous chemical discoveries.

Too great a stress cannot be put on page 88 as Janice Rodman and Sandra Grabill will tell you. Many hours are spent by the students memorizing the valences on this important page.

Conquered By The Science Age

In biology class, Nancy Drake finds the frog very amusing, but Carol Brown, listening to Mr. Myers's instructions, feels a bit squeamish and is not too anxious to get started.

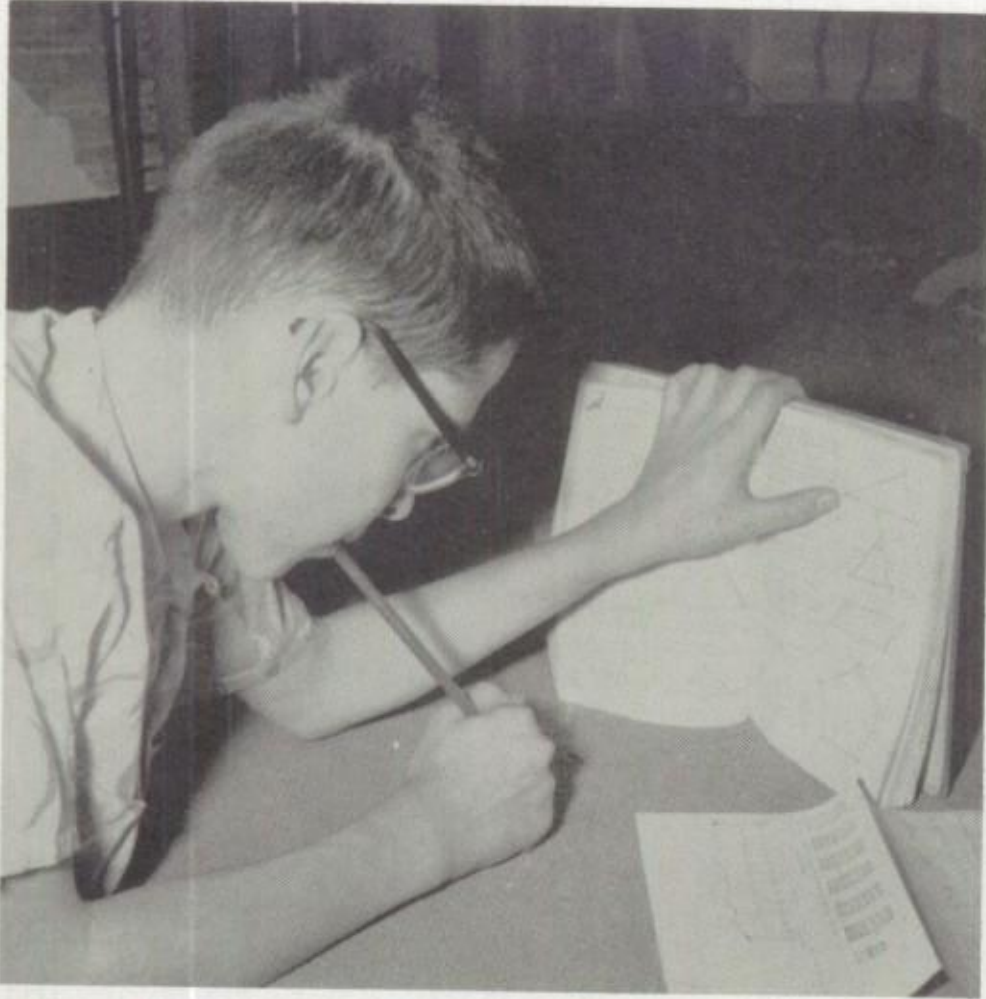

John Ludy is explaining the mechanics of the washing machine motor to Dorothy Hurtle. This is one of the projects undertaken by the 8th grade science class.

Mathematics Is Important

Daniel Christian works diligently on math homework. This eighth grade course introduces several different types of mathematics, and gives the junior high student an excellent foundation for advanced high school courses in the department.

Judson Swihart is taking part in a board drill. These challenging and exciting board drills in Mr. Kreider's math classes are not only helpful in developing efficiency but are eagerly anticipated by the students each Friday.

In Our World Of Today

Lewis Hartzler fascinated by the slide rule has now become a master at solving problems on it.

Mathematics is an important part of our days in school. At Concord algebra, geometry, and advanced math are taught to high school students who wish an academic career. General business and office practice are available for students who want a business career. Today mathematics plays an important part in everyday life as well as in the science of rockets and guided missiles.

The masculine mind predominates as Jack Wise shows Trudie Wilcox and Carol Van Scoik how to draw a geometry construction.

Students Of All Ages Enjoy

Junior high school students enter a new but vaguely familiar world of the social sciences . Here they learn the background and geographical condition of this country. Many, many hours of study take them well on their way to adventure and wonder which will add to their wealth of knowledge.

Maps are indispensable in the study of Geography. Ginger DeVault points out the location of Chile.

Amid the study of Civics lies the duties of citizens toward their country and fellowman. In this world of ours it is all important that we learn how to co-operate with other citizens to make ours a better world. As students we have duties as citizens which we must learn, just the same as adults. Learning these duties at an early age, we can cope with problems as we come to face them.

Participation In Social Studies

Advancing in our world of social science as sophomores, we now attend history classes. Most important, is the fact that we learn about the ways and habits and customs of other countries as well as our own, which will help us to better understand conditions in the world in which we live.

Sally Young and Jackie Olinghouse discover that history takes a lot of research; therefore, many hours of study in the library are necessary for good grades.

Counting votes is a very important part of elections as Betty Wininger, Nancy Holman, and Sharon Smeltzer learn as they keep tally of the mock election held in government class.

Before facing the world outside of Concord, we must have the knowledge of how our country is run. This we learn in government class. We must learn all about the machinery back of our government which, for more than a century, has stood firm amid wars and other conflicts. When we have learned this, we can intelligently discuss world affairs with confidence and pride.

Students Prepare Themselves

The students of the typing class strive for speed and accuracy. Here Diana Nelson is engrossed in typing a business letter.

Bookkeeping presents a problem, both in putting figures in the right places and getting everything to class. In the rush to beat the bell, Gloria Rude and Linda Moore collided with disastrous results for balance sheets, practice sets, work sheets, and all the paraphernalia students carry to and fro each day.

Concord is our world, and inside this world are the future business students. Here such business courses as bookkeeping, office practice, typing, general business, and shorthand are taught. Those students who complete their commercial training at Concord can be successful in the business world.

For A Modern Business World

Sandra Struble and Janet Wiseman demonstrate to the other members of office practice class the proper care and operation of the electric mimeograph. Students in this class also practice on the full-key adding machine, ten-key adding machine, calculator, and the dictaphone.

Sharon Holderman is typing her shorthand letter from the notes dictated by Mrs. Greenwalt.

In Our Changing World Arts Allow

Frequently water clay serves a useful purpose in expressing ideas. Here Kayrene Hatfield can be seen sculpting a head which she will eventually fire and have for many years to come.

Cultural subjects are not neglected but are given proper emphasis. A well-trained band and a fabulous corps of majorettes known as "The Seven Wonders" add color to programs and athletic contests. Five choirs, which hold superior ratings from state contests, present excellent programs throughout the year. Numerous art classes round out a varied and complete program of fine arts for the students at Concord.

Classes in the arts are designed to develop technical skills and to instill in each student a greater awareness of the finer things in life and an appreciation for the surrounding world of beauty.

Student exhibits serve to capture the imaginations of many students outside the art department. Students frequently make the discovery that many of their classmates are natural born artists. Carol Warfel and Jane Ellyn Cook are admiring one of the many art exhibits displayed in our front hall throughout the year.

For Individual Creativeness

In favorable weather, sometimes the band deserts the regular class room in favor of perfecting a marching routine.

Many hours of practice are spent to improve the choir. Dorothy Martin and Sharon Parker are practicing their duet for contest.

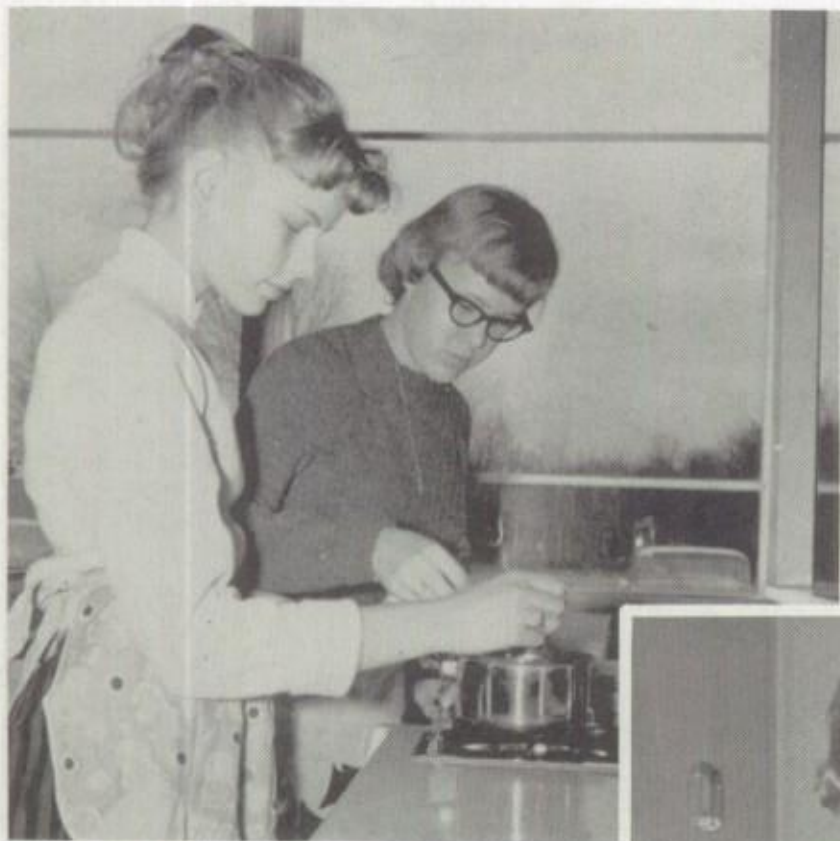

The Seven Wonders who are Linda Roberts, Diane Nelson, Gayle Overholser, Carol Lechlitrer, Lois Holewinski, Nedra Popke, and Rita Rheinheimer perform with the band for our games.

Credit for this precision group goes to their director, Dorothy Holewinski, who has devoted hours to developing and perfecting their routines.

Vocational Classes Add

As all girls need to prepare for their eventual roles as homemakers; special courses in homemaking, nursing, and child care, are offered in a modern home economics department.

ABOVE: Home economics is essential to girls in high school. To Ann Holdeman and Barbara Weideman learning how to prepare meals is a serious matter.

Janice Bock and Rita Croy look over their recipe once more to check if they have added all ingredients.

Variety To Our Curriculum

Shop classes have always been popular at Concord. Mr. Showalter instructs boys of all ages in every phase of wood working, from making modern blue prints to refinishing antique tables.

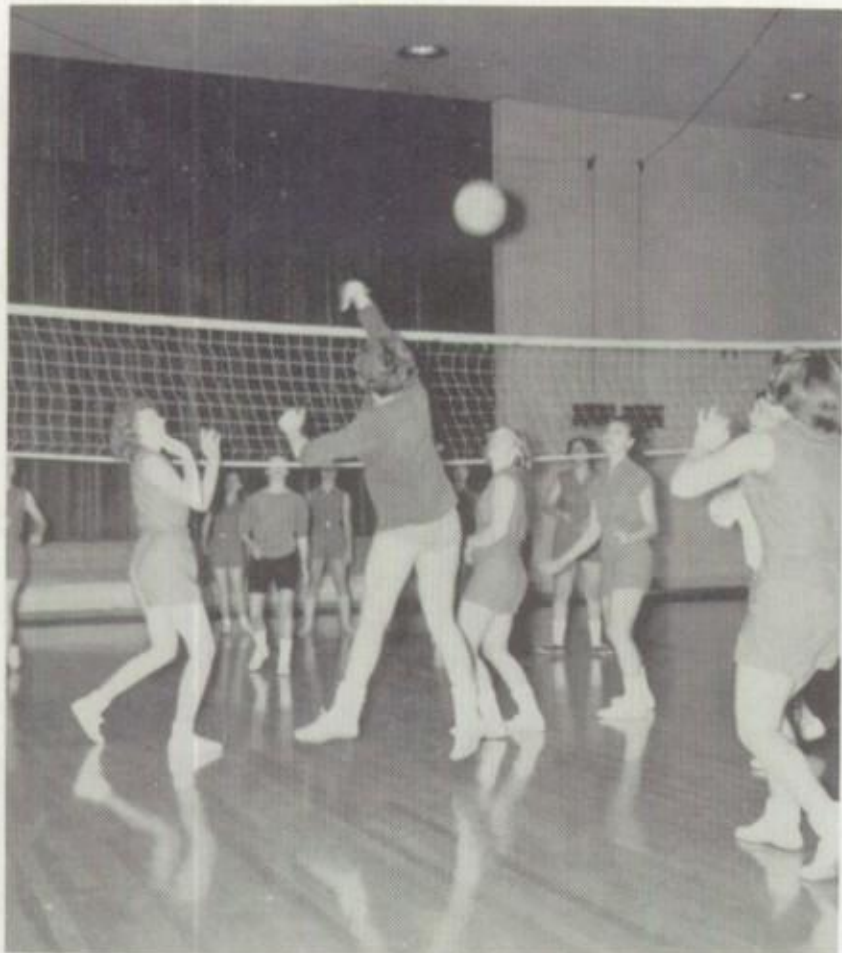

"You do it this way," explains Mr. Fullhart as he demonstrates how to make an aluminum bowl.

Mr. Fullhart is showing the boys in auto mechanics the parts of the 1956 Studebaker engine, which was donated by the Studebaker-Packard Company of South Bend.

The quality of good sportsmanship is practiced here in a game of volleyball.

Concord's physical education program is constructed to promote good health; both physically and mentally.

Under the instruction of Miss Rohrer, the girls receive important experience in living as members of a group, as well as individuals. They also learn the importance of teamwork and good sportsmanship.

During the cold months the training is confined to the gym. In warm weather the girls often take hikes or play softball. The completion of the new tennis courts will be an added attraction to the out-of-doors training.

Physical Education Promotes Good

The girls' rules for basketball may be different from the boys', but the goal is the same. . . "We want a basket."

Calisthenics are important for good posture and strong bodies.

One of the greatest thrills of winter time is skating on the new rink built by the combined efforts of the P. T. A. and the Lions Club.

Sportsmanship And Citizenship

Among the other activities of the boys' gym class are basketball, baseball, track, volleyball, and calisthenics.

Organizations

To break the monotony of studying, extra-curricular activities form an outlet for the student's energy. These organizations are an essential part of every student's school life. They provide the opportunity for companionship and competition which are needed to make good citizens.

Our Band Studies And Interprets

This is the first year for the color guard. They have led the band in many parades such as the Mermaid Parade, Fireman's Parade, and the Centennial Parade. It is composed of Bob Holdeman, Dave Vigen, Dave Vollmar, and Phil Swihart.

Drum majorette, Carol Lechlitner, leads the marching band and the corps of majorettes when marching in parades and at basketball games. A junior, Carol has been a member of the band for four years, a majorette for two years, and drum majorette for one year.

Our majorettes have won the approval and admiration of all as they have marched and twirled at parades, ballgames, and special programs. They are Rita Rheinheimer, Nedra Popke, Lois Holewinski, Carol Lechlitner, Gayle Overholser, Diann Nelson, and Linda Roberts.

Mr. Gibson rehearses the band daily to make the concerts more delightful. At the concerts the band plays a variety of music from overtures to popular music.

The band forms a patriotic C while playing the famed fight song, as the booster club sings in the background.

The band officers perform essential duties. They are, SEATED: Jean Kelly, Kathy Kauffman, Carol Warfel, Linda Roberts, Diann Nelson. STANDING: Gayle Overholser, Carol Lechlitrer, Dave Vigren, Tom Kauffman, Frank Rupe, Ned Kauffman.

The Choir Inspired Us At Christmas

Last year under the direction of Mrs. VanSickle, the Senior Choir, with a membership of thirty-one, received a superior rating at the district contest, and traveling on to the state contest, received another superior rating. It was the choir's second year for receiving the top award.

Time With "The Coming Of The King"

Officers Do Routine Tasks

Vocal talent is combined with leadership qualities in these outstanding choir officers: Betty Winger, Librarian; Sharon Parker, Secretary-Treasurer; Nancy Holman, Librarian. SECOND ROW: Don Mayou, Vice-President; Steve Harroff, Student Director; and Tom Sweazy, President.

Concord's mixed quartet sang "South Pacific" by Hammerstein and received superior ratings at both district and state contest. They are Steve Harroff, Sharon Parker, Dorothy Martin, and Tom Sweazy.

This large ensemble consists of Sheila Lavins, Mary Strickler, Penny Nelson, Linda Roberts, Carol Minegar, Barbara Bridenstine, and SECOND ROW: Greg Pletcher, Bobby Hershberger, Jim Barrett, Ross Swinehart, and Dennis Rinehart. They sang "Vocal Pizzicato" by Raymond Rhea at district and state contest and received superior ratings at both.

Ensembles Sing At Contest

Nancy McKibbin, Dorothy Martin, and Sharon Parker make up the senior trio. They received a superior rating at district contest and excellent rating at state. The trio sang "Peaceful Evening," by Debussy.

Dorothy Martin and Sharon Parker

Duets offer an inspiring challenge. Pictured on this page are three duets which received superior ratings at district contest.

Nancy McKibbin and Tom Sweazy.

Bob and Elizabeth Hershberger.

Vocal Students Seek To Express

Accompanists are of vital importance to the music department. They help to keep it running smoothly. Those pictured are: Susan Grove, Kay Bowers, and Elizabeth Hershberger. Seated at the piano are Judy Shigley and Mary Ann Bailey.

Thought And Feeling Through Singing

GIRL'S GLEE CLUB

ROW FOUR: Cheryl Ferguson, Sandra Yoder, Janette Rodman, Linda Woodworth, Barb Chiddister, Sandra Laird, Vickie Swoveland, Connie Maier, Dolly Barrick, Peggy Wood, Joanna Neu, Carol Martin, and Diana Vargo.

Soloists who participated at both district and state contests are: Tom Sweazy, Linda Housman, Kenneth Lawrence, and Shirley Fisher.

The Bookstore - A Growing Business

Gloria Rude and Tom Sweazy are busy stocking the shelves before the rush of the noon hours.

The bookstore has provided many sources of enjoyment for all. For the seniors it has been a means of making money to help make their senior trip to New York and Washington possible. It is a meeting place for all - especially for the underclassmen.

The co-managers of the store are Bob Holdeman and Bill Toney. They have been assisted throughout the year by Tom Sweazy, Joyce Wolgamood, Pat Riley, Dave Vigren, Phil Swihart, Gloria Rude, Carolyn Stutsman, Nancy McKibbin, Karen Risser, Jim Angel, Steve Fawley, Linda Moore, Dorothy VanScoik, Donna Smetzer, Karen Kline, and Gwen Crussemeyer.

One may find the bookstore open before school, during 4th and 5th noon hours, and after school.

Students Of The Speech Department

Sponsors Weekly Radio Program

The NFL members are Gayle Overholser, Gwen Crusemeyer, Tom Sweazy, Phil Swihart, Steve Fawley, Dave Vigren, Joyce Wolgamood, Shirley Fisher, Fred Ward, Dannielle Doty, Connie Anglemyer, Janice McBride and Marjorie Rasler.

Instruction in effective public speaking is an essential part of training for leadership in any endeavor. It also helps develop good speech habits, good posture, gracefulness, and confidence.

"Concord on the Air" is heard each Friday during the year at 3:30 p. m. over station WCMR. The sponsors during the year for the radio broadcast included Moore's Cleaners, Dean's Chicken Coop, and Whistler and Son.

One of the fundamental requirements of speech is that of impromptu speaking as done here by Gordon Stevens.

Tom Sweazy's dramatic declamation "The Button" has been a real favorite, having been repeated often by popular demand.

Anxious to be off to contest are Connie Anglemyer, Marg Rasler, Linda Moore, and Janice McBride.

A New Organization In Our World, The G.A.A.

Nancy Holman, our only senior member, has been instrumental in organizing our club.

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization for high school girls in grades nine to twelve. The purpose is to promote interest in good health, good sportsmanship, and physical education. Girls with physical handicaps are also encouraged to become members.

Basketball is one of the many sports through which we learn to work, live, and play together.

Y.F.C. Encourages Christian Fellowship

Our Youth For Christ club was organized to encourage Christian fellowship among the high school and junior high school students. It also unites members for greater Christian growth and services. They join together to create and maintain throughout the school and community the high standards of Christian character and to help fight against juvenile delinquency. Through Bible study they promote spiritual growth and also take part in many of the inter-club activities. High standards are set by the members of the Youth for Christ. This club welcomes any student who would like to join and no membership dues are required.

Ross Swinehart and Sally Young were Concord candidates for "King" and "Queen" to participate in the County Y.F.C. Sweetheart skating party. Ross was also elected as "King of Elkhart County."

The high school Y.F.C. is sponsored by Don Priest, and Milo Stump sponsors the junior high Y.F.C.

PUBLICATIONS STAFF

A lot of time is spent in the press room. Even at noon the staff members gather to eat, work, or just have fun.

Press Room Gang

Mr. Miller, in his sharp pajamas, a gift from the press room gang, relaxes in the hospital as he catches up on the latest school news from the Hi-Times.

He was the third man on the faculty to take time out for a few days in the hospital.

Concord's Booster Club Emphasizes

School Spirit And Sportsmanship

Concord's Cheerleaders Add

Nancy McKibbin, Pam Murray, and Carol Warfel pose before the Booster Club at sectional.

Nancy McKibbin is a senior in high school. Her sparkling personality and pep make her a number one cheerleader. This is Nancy's first year as a varsity cheerleader. She was also a second team cheerleader for two years.

This makes Pam Murray's second year as mascot for the varsity cheerleaders. Pam is "cute as a button" when she leads the school song and many other yells with the cheerleaders. And never does Pam fail to cross her fingers when the players are trying for a free throw.

Carol Warfel's gracefulness and vitality make her an outstanding cheerleader. Carol is a junior in high school, and this is her third year as cheerleader -two years for the second team and one year for the varsity.

Deep thought is indicated on Mr. Murray's face as he plans his next skillful maneuver for the team. This seriousness is reflected by Tom Kauffman, Dave Vollmar, and Loren Shaum.

Leon Linn, commonly known as a "big-little dynamite," is the only senior on the starting five of the varsity team. Although Leon was handicapped with a sprained ankle at the beginning of the year, he has proved himself a valuable guard. Leon is also the team's captain.

Our "Murraymen" Hit An All

Concord easily won its opening game in the 1958-'59 basketball season by defeating Jimtown, 50-33.

The Minutemen took the sting out of the Syracuse Yellowjackets with their fine rebounding when they won by a score of 77-61.

Concord extended its unbeaten season by downing New Carlisle, 66-53, and Washington Clay, 71-46.

A fifth triumph was claimed for the Minutemen when they rallied in the final quarter to beat Nappanee, 59-51.

LEFT: Warren Linn (10) adds two points for Concord in its victory over Middlebury during the regular season.

RIGHT: Leon Linn scores for Concord as he takes a long shot from the outside.

LEFT: This is a familiar sight to many Concord fans. Jim Powell (44) secures a fast break, and Leon Linn (22) follows close behind in case of trouble when the Minutemen scored 102 points to the 45 for Millersburg.

Winning was getting to be a habit as the Minutemen rolled on by defeating Penn, 61-43; Jefferson, 70-42; and Milford, 65-50.

They also crushed Bristol by a score of 74-52.

Time Record Of 102 Points

Bob Holdeman gently helps Jim Powell alleviate the pain of a charleyhorse, but somehow his heart doesn't seem to be in it as he is engrossed in the Minutemen's dethroning of Middlebury.

Fabulous Coaches And Magnificent

Dave Vollmar (11) drives for a lay-up in the fourth period of the New Paris game. The Minutemen reserve guard connected on the shot and made the score 56-38, with slightly more than six minutes to play.

Our Minutemen beat the Jimtown Jimmies at their own stall game by a score of 29-20.

Concord stretched its unbeaten season to 18 wins as they obtained 75 points to Madison's 51.

Our team showed the courage needed when they went into the finals of the sectionals. They did this by defeating Goshen, 78-45; Wakarusa, 69-37; and Jefferson, 49-43. They were defeated by Elkhart, 58-56.

Tom Kauffman stretches high as he gets the rebound for Concord. Steve Johnson, 40; Ron Iwema, 00; Jim Powell, 44.

The Minutemen started the 1959 season off with a bang by out-shooting the Goshen Redskins, 69-60.

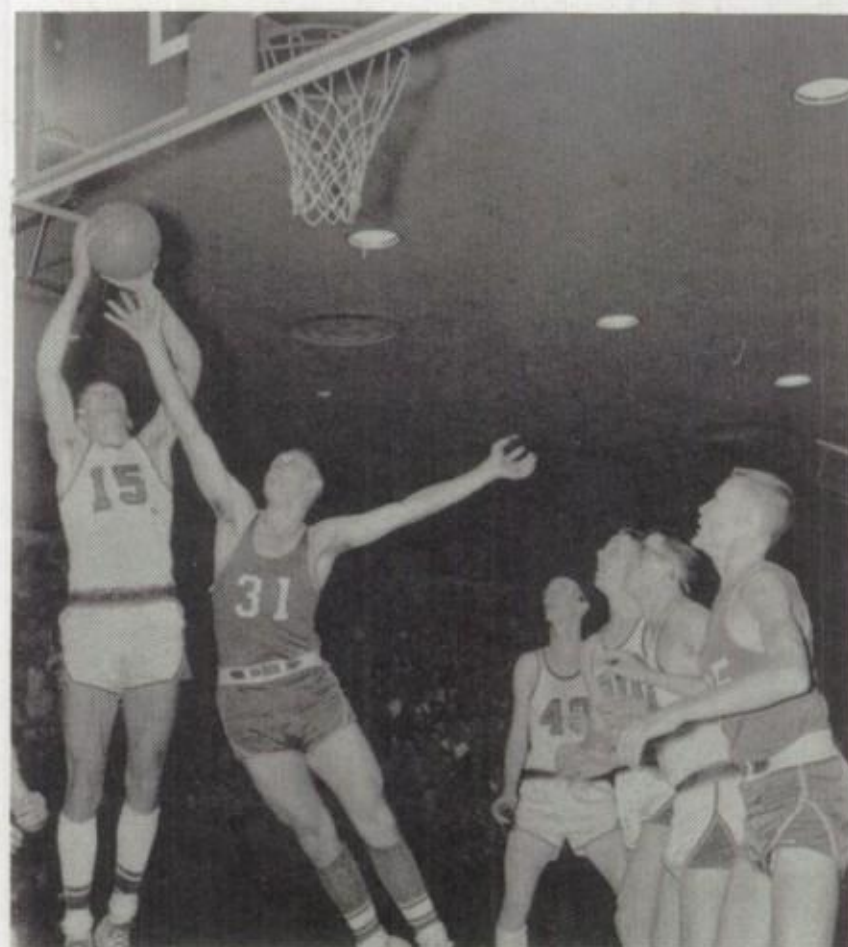

The second tribe of Indians hit the dust when the Minutemen defeated the Wakarusa Indians, 58-44.

Middlebury was expected to give the "Mighty Mites" a real battle, but they were beaten by a score of 75-64.

The undefeated Concord Minutemen became the county champions by beating New Paris, 72-49; Middlebury, 50-43; and Jefferson, 56-36.

Max Bell hides his face in a towel as the Blazers collapsed in the last three minutes of the sectional finals under the hustling man-to-man pressure defense of the Minutemen.

Teams Spell Concord's Success

Concord's "B" team, loser only to Goshen in an overtime and to Jimtown, won the 1958-'59 "B" team county tourney. Coach Abe Hoogenboom, a former GHS star, moved to Dunlap from Mentone this year. The young Minutemen won 19 of 21 games.

It's always Concord out in front as Jim Wolgamood (45) and Paul Angel (50) demonstrate during the Penn game, which was a pushover for Concord at 51 to 36.

The Minutemen proved their outstanding ability by compiling a 10-0 record. Ronnie Iwema finished the season with a .469 batting average. Jim Powell proved his great pitching ability by hurling four wins and no losses. Warren Linn scored the only home run of the entire season. The team got a shaky start as they defeated Middlebury by only two points, but they were able to capture the remaining games by wide margins, defeating Jefferson, Wakarusa, Bristol, Millersburg, New Paris, and Bourbon.

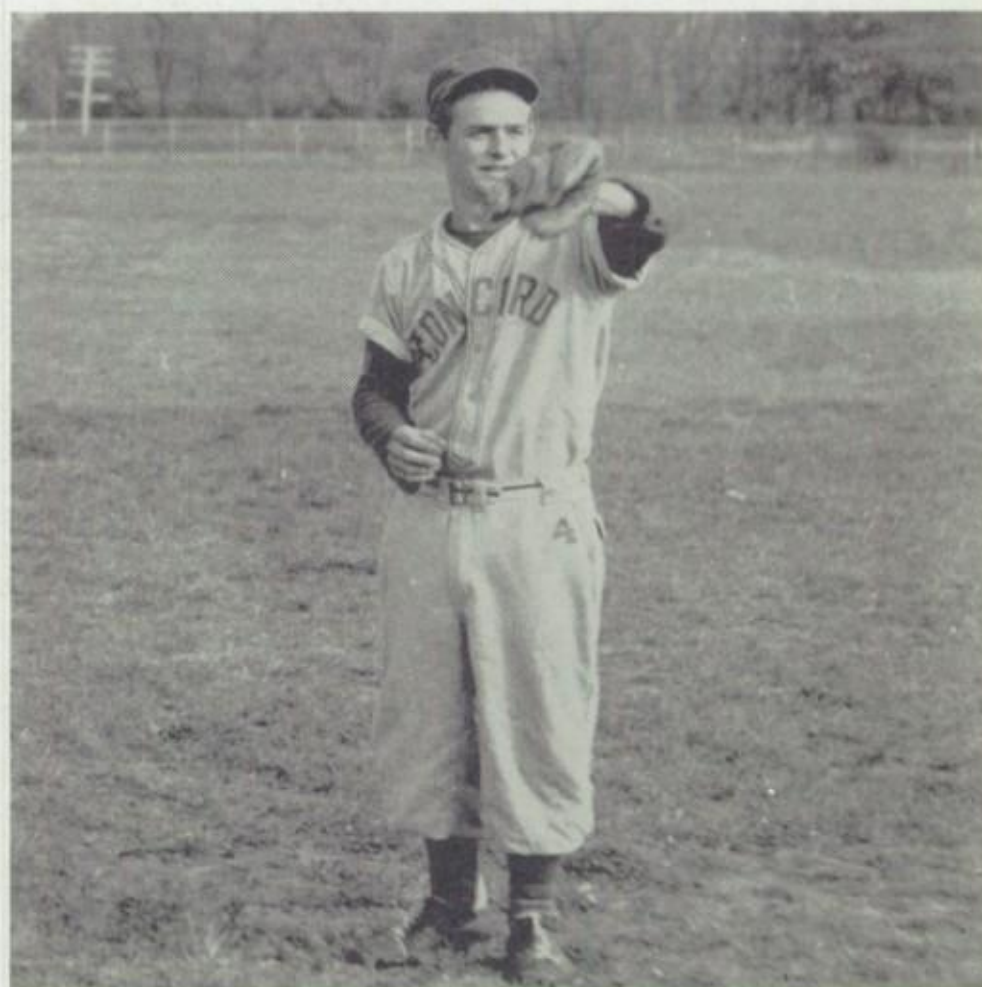

... "All set?" says Steve Johnson as he awaits a chance to give the Minutemen another run.

. . . "Shall we try for a sixth straight win?" Says Leon Linn as he warms up before the New Paris game.

Lester McCuen, baseball coach, proudly receives from "Dad" Harter of the House of Harter in Goshen the 1957- '58 Elkhart County Baseball Championship Trophy. The mighty team pulled through with ten successful wins and no losses.

People

We are proud of the buildings and facilities which have been provided for us, but these are only accessories which help make our world so meaningful. The administration, teachers, students, cooks, and bus drivers - these people make the memories of a school year dear, for together we share the work and fun which are a part of our daily routine.

Karen Risser and Steve Fawley

School Board And Administration

Boyd J. Stump has served as our superintendent for four years and was principal for twenty years. Mr. Stump received his Bachelor's degree at Ball State Teachers College and his Master's at Indiana University.

This is the second year we have had a school board. During this time competent members have capably handled the administration of our school.

Mr. Stump and the school board, LEFT TO RIGHT: Dale Stauffer, Kenneth Weeber, Paul Northam, Lynn Swinehart, Willis Hershberger, look over plans for next year.

Selling lunch tickets, typing letters, answering the telephone, and writing checks are only a few of the countless chores assigned to the secretaries. Somehow they struggle through these tasks and come up undaunted. Serving as Mr. Stump's secretaries, Ruth Scheidel does the township book-keeping and Rosella Lewallen keeps the books of the extracurricular activities for the high school.

Mrs. Lewallen and Mrs. Scheidel discuss a business problem in their office.

These . . The Indispensable

Mary DeVault, Mr. Miller's secretary, performs many tasks such as: answering the telephone, keeping daily attendance records, and typing of letters and tests. She has been secretary of the high school for two years.

Ernest Miller has been the principal of Concord High School for the past four years. He received his Bachelor's degree at Goshen College and his Master's degree at Indiana University.

Paul Gibson has been Concord's band director for sixteen years. He received his B.S. degree at Goshen College and his M.A. degree at Notre Dame. He also took graduate courses at the University of Michigan, Notre Dame, and Ball State Teachers' College.

Marilyn Van Sickle, music director, has been at Concord for three years. Her fine music ability has been proved many times by the outstanding programs produced by the vocal department. She received both her M.M. and B.M. degrees. She attended Butler University and the University of Rochester.

Joseph Van Sickle, art director, has also been at Concord for three years. During these three years our art department has progressed in both size and scope. He received both his B.A. and M.A. degrees. He attended the John Herron School, Iowa University, and the George Peabody School.

Betty Healey, teacher of Senior English and journalism, received her A.B. degree at Western College for Women. She has had graduate work at Rutgers University, Indiana University, and New Jersey State Teachers' College. She also teaches advanced Latin and is the school librarian.

Marilyn Cragun, assistant librarian, can always be found doing one of the many jobs of an efficient librarian. She files cards, locates books, and keeps the library in order. She also helps Mrs. Healey in the grading of papers.

Our Concord Teachers Mix

Retha Kauffman, Orvin Kilmer, Milo Stump, Lela Evans, and Don Priest listen to the recording of an interview with Mr. Priest which had been taped for the radio broadcast.

Milo Stump, A.B. and M.S., is teaching English and mathematics this year. He is acting as junior high counselor. Mr. Stump has attended Bluffton College, Goshen College, Indiana University, and Manchester College.

Don Priest, a 1950 Concord graduate, attended Goshen College where he received his B.S. degree. He has returned to Concord to teach sophomore English.

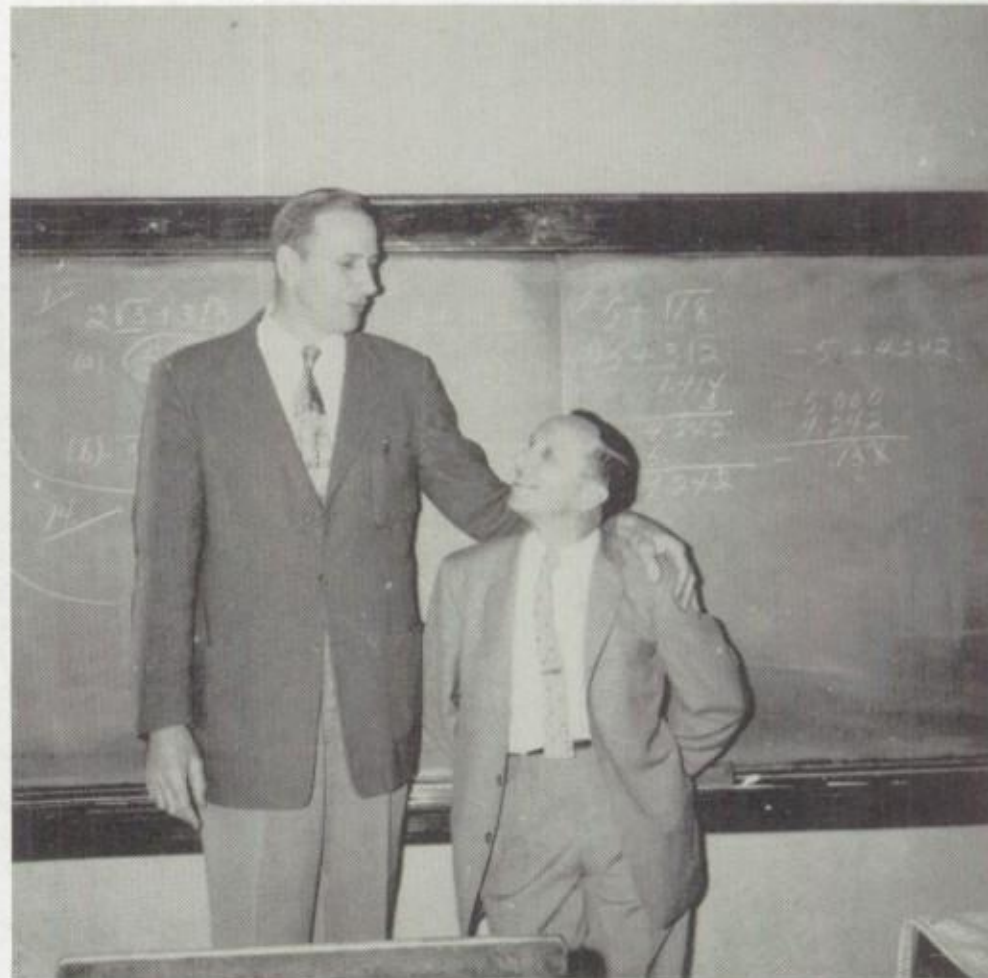

Lela Mae Evans teaches Latin and mathematics with enthusiasm. She attended Manchester College and Goshen College where she received her A.B. degree.

Retha Kauffman received her B.A. degree from Goshen College. She also attended Ball State Teachers' College where she received an additional commerce license. She has taught in college, elementary, and high school.

Orvin Kilmer is the head of our speech department at Concord. He attended Manchester College, Goshen College, and Bethany Biblical Seminary and holds a B.S. degree. He has done an outstanding job in direction of the class plays for the last four years.

Abraham Hoogenboom is the tallest member of the faculty at Concord. He is teaching civics, United States history, and also he is coach of the Concord "B" team. Mr. Hoogenboom attended Manchester College where he received his B.S. degree. He also went to Indiana University and acquired his M.S. degree.

Though Dayton Kreider is small in stature, he is a mathematical genius. He received his B.A. degree while at Manchester College. He also attended Indiana University. Mr. Kreider has been considered tops in his department by the students and graduates of the past twenty-five years.

Abraham Hoogenboom gives Dayton Kreier a special pat on the back. Mr. Kreider was instrumental in rearranging schedules to take care of the government classes during Mr. Hoogenboom's illness.

Education With Pleasure

Among the science teachers is Ethan Gwaltney, teacher of chemistry, physics, and drivers' training. Mr. Gwaltney has an A.B. degree, and he attended Evansville College and Indiana University.

Although he has been very busy with his normal schedule, he has found time to assume the duties of the senior class sponsor. Whether participating in the sale of concessions at the home games, cheering for the team at the tourney, or attending a class meeting, Mr. Gwaltney always has the spirit and enthusiasm for which he is famous.

Naomi Greenwalt and Dale Hartzler are responsible for the many valuable business courses taught at Concord. General business, typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and office practice compose the complete commercial training at Concord.

Mrs. Greenwalt has been at Concord for fourteen years. She attended Goshen College, Manchester College, and Indiana University and has both a B.S. and an M.S. degree.

Mr. Hartzler received his B.S. degree from Goshen College. In addition to commercial courses he also teaches history and geography.

"Mary Blood and Arvilla French teach classes in homemaking."

Home economics is important to every girl, and at Concord all are given an opportunity to study homemaking, nursing, and child care, in a comfortable modern environment.

Mary Blood and Arvilla French are the teachers of this course. They make it their personal task to see that all of their students receive the best help they can give.

Mrs. French holds a B.S. degree received from Indiana State Teachers' College.

Mrs. Blood is a graduate of Purdue University where she received her B.S. degree.

Our Faculty Offers Guidance

Lester McCuen, better known as Mac, is well-liked by both students and faculty. Mr. McCuen attended Indiana Central University where he received his A. B. degree. He holds the record for basketball game attendance. He has never missed a Concord game during the last twenty-one years and at this writing has attended 473 games.

Clifford Murray, one of Concord's best-liked teachers, has coached the Murraymen on to many victories, among them the county tourney. Mr. Murray attended Indiana State Teachers College where he received his B. A. degree. In addition to coaching he also teaches physical education, health, and history.

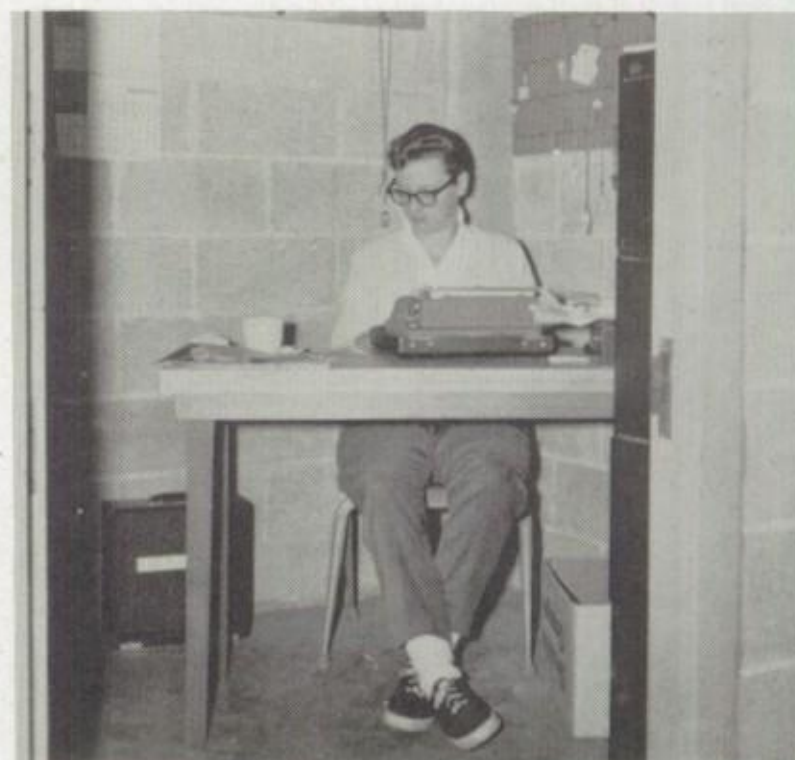

Mr. Murray and Mr. Yacuk marvel at Concord's two-time high score record for this season. Those Minutemen scored 102 against both Millersburg and New Paris in regular season games.

Clyda Rohrer, youngest member of the faculty, ably instructs the girls physical education classes. She enters wholeheartedly into intramural activities and sponsors Concord's G. A. A. Miss Rohrer received her B. S. degree at Manchester.

Mr. McCuen takes advantage of the quiet of the library.

Nick Yacuk coaches the two junior high teams and is grooming the youngsters for possible varsity men. Mr. Yacuk attended Central Normal and Purdue for his B. S. degree. He also teaches health and junior high physical education classes.

Tests are also an essential part of physical education and Miss Rohrer prepares one on the rules of volleyball.

To Those Who Need It

Ralph R. Myers heads the biology and health departments. Mr. Myers has a B. A. degree and attended Goshen College, Manchester, and Indiana University. As an extra curricular duty he is in charge of visual aids and assists with the general assembly programs.

Mr. Myers points out on the map the state of Florida where he found the pencil urchin he is holding.

Ernest R. Showalter has taught wood shop and mechanical drawing at Concord for twenty-five years. He attended Ball State Teachers College and Indiana University and has both an M. S. and a B. S. degree.

Roger Willis teaches geography, history, and English. Mr. Willis attended Goshen College where he received his B. S. degree. He lives in Goshen and preaches in a church in Knox, Indiana.

Arlie Waggy teaches English, mathematics, and general science. Mr. Waggy holds a B. A. and an M. S. degree; he attended Bridgewater College, Manchester College, and Indiana University.

Cornell Price teaches junior high mathematics, history, and geography. He attended Manchester and Goshen Colleges where he received his B. S. degree.

Mr. Showalter and Mr. Fullhart take time out to rest while the photographer takes their picture.

Mr. Wills, left, and Mr. Price, right, chuckle at a joke in Mr. Waggy's book.

These Students Are Tops

Virginia Bell, Valedictorian, and David Vigren, Salutatorian, are busy looking at a Purdue year-book; both plan to enter Purdue next fall.

Valedictorian Virginia Bell has a scholastic average of 96.37 per cent. Her delightful personality and concern for others has won her many friends among her classmates, members of other classes, and the faculty.

Virginia is an active member of the senior class and participated in the junior class play. She is also editor of the Concordian.

David Vigren, who attained a scholastic average of 94.78 per cent, is salutatorian.

In addition to his scholastic accomplishments David has served his class as President during all four years in high school. He also participated in both the senior and junior class plays.

The Way To A Teen-Ager's Heart - - -

During three noon hours per day, one hundred and eighty days a year, our wonderful cooks serve approximately one hundred and fifty three thousand delicious meals.

Here are Helen Reed, Doris Overholser, and Hazel Yonker preparing a meal for the hungry mob.

Custodian And Bus Drivers Perform

These bus drivers are relaxing and talking after bringing students to school. They are Forrest Shupert, Lester Kline, LaMar Stickle, and Lowell Stickle.

Dan Stutsman shows Ledger Kauffman, Ben Stutsman and Henry Roush his bus route on a map of Concord Township.

Sixty seconds go by slowly for the bus drivers as well as the students when it is that last long minute just before the bell rings. Here Ivan Overholser, Dwight Roush, Wayne Hoffman, and Lewis Stark wait for the students to be released.

Manford Metzler, Ralph Stutsman and Bob Hoffman complete our list of bus drivers. Concord's bus drivers cover a total of 513 miles each day.

Essential Tasks For Concord's Well Being

If it isn't grass to cut or snow to shovel, it's leaves to rake. Otis Schrock finds that a custodian's job is never done.

Emptying the waste paper baskets was one of the many daily chores performed by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Myers during their twelve years of faithful service to Concord.

It takes ingenuity, perseverance and patience to do all the things required of Manfred Nusbaum as custodian of the new high school building and as part-time bus driver.

Our custodian, Armond Edel, proves he is indispensable when it comes to repairing "Old Faceful." Mr. Edel took over after the resignation of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Myers.

Advertisements

Advertising is one of the most powerful forces in American society. It stimulates invention, design, manufacturing and trade by creating demands for the product. It promotes national welfare by urging public co-operation in such socially useful programs as safety, health, savings, and conservation. It provides education and amusement by paying for radio and television programs and publications of different kinds. In order to do its work well an ad must attract attention, build interest, create desire to own, and get action. It is with these things in mind that we present the following pages of advertising, hoping to stimulate a greater appreciation of the community in which we live and the many services it has to offer.

A Share In America?

Yes indeed, a real share in America is yours partly for the asking, partly for the taking. You'll soon ask to take your place in America as an independent citizen, as one share of the heritage your forefathers passed on to you. Perhaps you will invest your earned money in the stock issued by American business firms. This is another way of owning a share of America.

There are many such examples of private privilege in this great country--voting is one such, electing the men and women who fill the chairs of America's government "of the people."

All this responsibility and privilege calls for the highest caliber citizens our parents and our schools can produce. Make sure your schools' investment in you, that your parents' investment in you -- turns into stock whose value soars higher and higher as the years advance so you can truly aver that you are, indeed, a SHARE OF AMERICA.

Congratulations on graduation day from your newspaper, your radio station, and your television station -- one good citizen to another.

While the Minutemen were wrestling the championship crown from the Middlebury Middies in the Elkhart County Basketball Tourney, Pam Murray (right) exerting her feminine wiles, succeeded in appropriating their little mascot's "Middie Crown." Sheree Miller (left) seemed unconcerned that her champions had fallen, and that she had been "scalped" by her Minutemaid contemporary as Bonnie Howard, (center) Millersburg's little "Miller", only had eyes for the fascinating press camera.

Every year the Elkhart Optimist Club of Elkhart selects a boy who is outstanding in the county. This year the award was presented Dave Vollmar. Dave is the president of the junior class. The above picture shows Dave receiving the plaque from Mr. Robert Blessing, president of the Optimist Club. Looking on is Superintendent B. J. Stump. The plaque reads: "Boy of the Year Award" presented to David Rex Vollmar as representative of the ninety-five percent of the young people of our community who are a source of family and community pride, and in recognition of the accomplishments of our youth in the home, school, church, and community."
